

Skye's Place

The Women's Resource Society operates a second-stage housing program for women with children who are leaving an abusive relationship. Residents of Skye's Place enjoy a close-knit community, a safe space for their families, and opportunities for moms and kids to thrive. Applications for housing are available at the Women's Centre.

Funded by BC Housing

Please contact the Women's Centre if you'd like to join our community: volunteer, serve on the Board, support us with a donation or become a member!

The Fort St. John Women's Resource Society strives to empower women and girls with the tools to improve the quality of their own lives. We are committed to promoting equality, safety and well-being to the women of our community.

Our History

In 1981, a group of women in the Fort St. John area organized the original Women's Centre. They were concerned about the lack of resources and choices available to women in the North and the overall absence of an effective method of organizing change for women. In the spirit of sisterhood, FSJ women took it upon themselves to fill this gap by creating a place for women to gather and forge a sense of community based on support and progress. Over 30 years later, the Women's Resource Society continues in this tradition, providing valuable services and promoting the betterment of all women's lives.

The Women's Centre is grateful for the generous support of local companies, individuals and our sponsors, including:

The Law Foundation of BC
BC Housing
BC Lottery Corporation
Callison Zeunert Law Corp.
United Way of NBC
North Peace Savings & Credit Union
